

Messezentrum Nuernberg, Germany, March 1 – 3, 2011

Author Guidelines

Dear Author,

congratulations, your abstract has been accepted by the advisory board of embedded world Conference 2011. Due to the excellent quality and large number of abstracts we expect a very interesting conference.

Basic Information

1. Publication:

- Your paper will be distributed as part of the conference proceedings CD-ROM (with ISBN-No.; book character)
- Please give five keywords for electronic content search purposes
- Please meet the given deadlines to make sure that your files can be included

2. Final paper deadline:

Please send your final paper via e-mail to DESIGN&ELEKTRONIK:
REster@elektroniknet.de by Tuesday, January 11, 2011

- .PDF-File, 300dpi
- One singular appearance of your company logo
- Contact address of the author(s)

Please transform your final paper into .PDF-format yourself. Do not forget to include special fonts and check the pdf file for graphic and fonts faults finally.

3. Unable to attend? Please contact Renate Ester immediately!

Mrs Renate Ester:

e-mail: REster@elektroniknet.de

Phone: +49 (0) 8121 95-1349

Fax: +49 (0) 8121 95-2349

You can name a substitute speaker (e.g. co-author), if applicable. However, please make sure that we are informed of any changes immediately.

We'd like to emphasise once more, that only technically oriented papers are accepted. Keeping the interests of the conference and its participants in mind, the hosts of the several sessions will stop or cancel the presentation of any paper that is marketing-oriented or differs from the earlier proposed text. Be aware that you will be speaking to experienced designers and young engineers. Therefore a purely technical orientation of your paper is mandatory.

Organizer of embedded world Conference 2011:
DESIGN&ELEKTRONIK
WEKA FACHMEDIEN GmbH
Gruber Str. 46a
85586 Poing
Germany